

Saturday Field Day, May 30, 2009, at the Wanechek Tree Farm, Cle Elum, WA

Kittitas Farm Forestry Association President Phil Hess welcomes people and introduces the hosting tree farmer.

Host Larrin Wanechek and his twin daughters

A demonstration on doing tree measurements was led by Thembi Borras.

Participants learned how to drill an increment core to determine a tree's age

Dick Schellhaas and Anne Conway provided information on fire history.

Trees can tell the story of historic fires.

Dick Miller led a workshop on soils & healthy forests.

Andy Perleberg, WSU Extension Agent and program chair for the WFFA Annual Meeting

A barbeque lunch was catered by the Future Farmers of America.

Hungry tree farmers wait for their lunch

Larrin's hobby is building a miniature railroad on the property.

Constructed wildlife habitat feature, one of many on the Wanechek Tree Farm